

Tang Garden Golden Age

The Tang dynasty is considered to be one of the highest peaks of Chinese history thanks to its civilization and culture.

Chang'an, the capital, was a cosmopolitan city, in which different religions and ideologies coexisted. In such flourishing times for culture, both literature and art thrived to the point in which even poetry skills were mandatory for those eager to pass the imperial examination, and the Emperor Li Longji was a renowned art patron himself.

Throughout the 6 new scenarios provided, you will experience new ways to play Tang Garden: Build unique landscapes with interesting decorations and panoramas, attract new important visitors with your creations and try different strategies with a new set of lanterns.

Gain 7 coins, lose 1 coin for each Bonsai Tree, Ninfea and Sancai Vase played by any player.

Gain 7 coins, lose 1 coin for each Bonsai Tree, Ninfea and Sancai Vase played by any player.

Example:

Viola

Michele

Katia

At the end of the game Viola has 2 Ninfeas and 1 Sancai Vase in front of her, Michele has 1 Bonsai Tree in front of him and Katia has 1 Sancai Vase. Each Bonsai Tree, Ninfea and Sancai Vase gives 2 coins (7 coins minus 1 coin for each Bonsai Tree, Ninfea and Sancai Vase in the game)

• Lantern Tokens •

In Golden Age there are two additional types of Lantern tokens:

Draw 5 Garden tiles either from a pile with face-up tiles, or face-down tiles and place one in the garden returning the other 4 back to the pile in the preferred order.

Exchange your active Character with one in the display.

• Special Garden Tiles •

Bamboo Garden: The edge does not need to match to the edges of adjacent tiles when placed. Additionally, all edges of the Bamboo Garden enclose terrains. When placed gain one coin + one coin for each adjacent terrain, regardless of their type.

• Scenarios •

- Roll the die to select a random scenario to play.
- The following scenarios have been tested, but the rules can be mixed and matched. To create your own set-up follow the instructions and advice in the Craft Scenario section.
- Whichever scenario you choose, you can always add 3 small and 3 big Landscape tiles from Golden Age extension.

SCENARIOS

TILES

Choose 15 tiles per type among all of the available, discard the other tiles without looking at them.

Choose 15 tiles per type among all of the available, discard the other tiles without looking at them.

Choose 15 tiles per type among all of the available, put the remaining 16 tiles in a common pile, shuffle them and remove 1 from the game. Place the pile aside and draw three tiles from it placing them face-up: these tiles will be the market.

DECORATIONS

Add Butterfly and Duck.

Remove Peonies and Lotus from the game, and add Butterfly, Duck, Sancai Vase, Bonsai and Ninfea.

Add all of the Golden Age decorations to the base ones.

CHARACTERS

Add Nobleman, Princess, Emissary and Literate.

Remove Empress, Student and Merchant from the game, and add Nobleman, Princess, Emissary, Literate, Musician, Tao Priest, Geomancer and Gardener.

Add all of the Golden Age characters to the base ones. Show 4 characters in the display.

LANDSCAPES

Follow the base game rules.

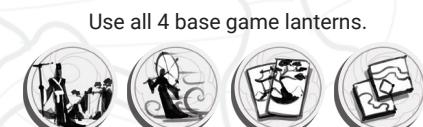

Randomly place the tokens in their original spots disregarding their type (big or small).

Place 8 big and 4 small Landscape tokens on the board following the scheme in the image (*).

LANTERNS

Each player secretly chooses which 4 lanterns to use among the 6 available. Then everyone reveals them by placing them on their playerboard.

Use all 4 base game lanterns.

SPECIAL RULES

All characters gain 1 coin for each Village icon in their active Landscape. More than one Lantern can be used per turn (except repeated Lanterns).

Buy a specific tile from the market, paying 1 coin if there are 3 tiles, 0 coins if there are 2 tiles remaining, and immediately refill the market tiles when there is only 1 tile remaining. If there are no tiles remaining in the pile next to the market, refilling is not an option any more. Remove the last tile in the market from the game.

四 Scenario • Longji and Yuhuan •

Choose 15 tiles per type among all of the available, discard the other tiles without looking at them.

Remove Fish and Bird from the game, and add Butterfly, Duck, Sancai Vase, Bonsai and Ninfea.

Remove Child, Poet and Officer from the game, and add Nobleman, Princess, Emissary, Literate, Musician, Tao Priest, Geomancer and Gardener.

Follow the graphic reference(*)�.

Use only the following 2 lanterns:

All Characters gain 1 coin for each animal icon on the active Landscape. Emperor and Lady each earn 3 coins if they face each other.

五 Scenario • Renovation •

Randomly choose 8 Tao tiles with a wall and place them in a new configuration like in the image(*), the walls must always face towards the centre of the board. Follow the image to place the tokens correctly. Remove the central tile from the game. Use all of the remaining Tao tiles, and keep 15 tiles of the other types.

Use all decorations from the base game and Golden Age extension.

Use all characters from the base game and Golden Age extension. Remove the Emperor and the Lady before dealing the cards. Deal two characters to every player at the beginning of the game, players will choose 1 of the two and remove the other one from the game. No starting level bonus is awarded, even if the icon is present. Mix all of the other characters and make them available, face-up, at the beginning of the game.

Follow the base game rules.

Use only the following 2 lanterns:

All the Characters are placed in the garden at the end of the game, starting from the first player and following clockwise. Always use the Character skill of the last chosen Character.

六 Scenario • Chang'An •

Choose only 15 tiles per type among all of the available, discard the other tiles without looking at them.

Add Sancai Vase, Bonsai, Ninfea.

Add Tao Priest, Geomancer, Gardener, Musician. Reveal 3 characters in the display, in order to have more choice when influencing a new character.

Follow the base game rules.

Use the following 4 lanterns:

All characters gain 1 coin for each Village icon in their active Landscape. More than one Lantern can be used per turn except already used Lanterns.

• Craft Scenario •

TILES:

Always use between 14 and 17 tiles per type, according to the desired game length.

DECORATIONS:

Pavilions, Bridges and Trees must always be kept. The following sets must be added or removed together, and can never be separated:

- Sancai Vase, Bonsai and Ninfea + Tao Priest

- Peonies and Lotus + Empress, Emperor and Lady

- Birds and Fish + Child

Duck and Butterfly can be added or removed freely.

CHARACTERS:

Always keep the following Characters in the game: Sword Dancer, Monk, Emperor, Lady and Architect. Always keep a Merchant or Emissary, and a Child or Literate. Keep the total number of Characters to around 16 if possible.

LANTERNS:

Make sure to play with all four Lanterns if you want to play with the Butterfly; if you want to play with all of the characters, make sure to include the "search for a character or landscape" lantern in the game. The Geomancer and the Officer give a good control on the tiles, you can avoid using the "5 tiles choice" lantern if you have both of them in the game.

LANDSCAPE TILES:

You can always play with all of the Landscape tiles.

LANDSCAPE TOKENS:

Always play with all 8 small and 8 big tokens on the map. Be aware that these tokens, together with the Garden tiles, control the length of the game and how far you can go with the three levels on your personal board.

If you want to create your own configuration, try to keep equal distance between Landscape tokens and make sure that they are not too distant from the center of the board, especially in a 2-player game.
